Compensation

The Northwest School evaluates regional peer schools each year to ensure compensation remains competitive. Our goal is for all employees to be paid at the median of a regional benchmark group, on average. We currently meet this goal and have for the last 9 years. Teaching faculty are paid according to a scale that rewards years of service and education; pay increases for teaching faculty occur annually upon commencement of the new academic year. Administrative Faculty are paid competitive with the local and national labor market; pay increases for Administrative Faculty occur annually on September 1.

Faculty are paid once a month on the last business day of the month.

Work – Life Benefits
